

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on February 17, 1917, into the family of James Otto and Susie A. Harp Thompson of Oregon County, Missouri, Amy Thompson Caldwell will celebrate her Ninetieth Birthday with a gathering of family members and friends at the Rover Fire Station in Rover, Missouri, on February 25, 2007; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, Amy Caldwell established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Roy Lee Caldwell who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, the marital union of Amy and Roy Caldwell has been blessed with devoted children, Ginger James and Sharon and Robert Traci, and twelve wonderful grandchildren; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Amy Caldwell enjoys a life that encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Amy Caldwell:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the Ninetieth Birthday of Amy Caldwell and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Amy Thompson Caldwell of Koshkonong, Missouri.
